Welcome to the OW

The OW Ranch is what some people might call a little slice of heaven, sitting in the shadow of the wolf mountains on one side and the powder river on the other; the ranch is a welcoming sight when you cross Hanging Woman Creek. Some of the worlds most prime horse and cattle country, it is an ideal place to make quality ranch horses and all natural beef.

The OW is owned by music industry legend Jim Guercio. Guercio is best known for founding the Caribou Ranch – a recording studio where Chicago, Elton John, Michael Jackson, and countless others cut some of their greatest albums in the foothills of the Colorado Rockies west of Boulder. More recently, Guercio has lovingly restored the OW to its original glory when it was owned by John Kendrick, Wyoming's ninth governor.

Guercio brought in Montana architect Jonathan Foote to renovate the historic ranch structures to the standards of the Kendrick Cattle Company. From the restored bunkhouse with its fabulous raised wooden porch to the massive barn with its enormous cottonwood beams and wooden saddling floor, Guercio and Foote took great pains to keep the original feel and footprint of the headquarters intact. The ranch looks and feels like it came right out of your favorite western movie.

The historic OW bunkhouse porch is the perfect meeting spot for visiting ropers to gather after brandings for a fine cigar and a spot of single malt.

Guercio has also worked feverishly to maintain the tradition of the region's horse and cow culture. "We have a true horseback outfit here. All gatherings and brandings are done on horseback. The OW can carry 1,500 animal units and includes 2,000 acres of dry land hay and creek bottom meadows," Guercio tells me via satellite phone. "For me this place represents the West as it was – and as it should remain."

During the 1990s, Guercio would host a group of "significant Westerners" who would come from all parts of the globe to brand during the late spring. "We had quite a branding crew – the late CAA artist Joe Beeler, Canadian singer/songwriter Ian Tyson, saddlemakers Chuck Stormes and Chas Weldon, along with all sorts of locals. It was a great time to catch up with old friends and see a bunch of range teepees in the front yard," Guercio says.

Rangeland on the OW is mainly comprised of gentle foothills with scattered timber and meadows in the many valleys. It is precisely what a Montana ranch should look like, and Guercio is rightfully proud of what his passionate investment has created.

"This is a place where for me, time has stopped. It's place where good cowmen and good horses can work stock in a traditional manner on land that simply was made to run cows. If there is a cowboy heaven on earth, this might just be it."

OUR BEEF

The OW focuses on raising all natural beef on the native grasslands of south eastern montana. We strive to create a highly marketable beef product that his naturally raised, managed and sold. Our cattle calve out in the hills and are very rarely exposed to stressful situations. Our goal is to develop the OW brand into a well known brand of quality beef and other products produced on the ranch. From Beef to Ranch Horses and everythign in between, we are grateful to be able to produce great products in the most beautiful place on earth.

“GENE SIMMONS”

2010 PONY GELDING
CONSIGNED BY JAK CLARK

Gene Simmons has been such an amazing pony for our family. He is the perfect size so that the kids can go catch him on their own and not be intimidated, they can saddle him on their own, get on and hit a trot! Gene has been long days gathering tens of thousands of acres with us and always keeps caught up with the big horses. He is confident to go wherever his rider points him; up stairs, down stairs, over dogs, over logs, through creeks... Anywhere! He has great manners on the ground and is not a spoiled pony. All of our kids ponies and horses are THEIRS, they buy them and they sell them. This is not an adult pony being marketed as a kids pony. This is a kid pony made by kids.

“BRUNCH”

2018 BROWN DRAFT CROSS GELDING
CONSIGNED BY OW RANCH

Brunch... funny name... but WHO DOESN'T LOVE BRUNCH??!! Brunch is going to be a big guy when he's done growing! He always meets you at the gate in the early mornings, and is in your pocket. He has been branded on a bunch and really tracks up great, he has even been played in cowboy polo (which is a little wild sometimes... and he handled it with ease!). He has beautiful movement and action in his hind end and really picks his feet up. He was raised in rough country and I've ridden him in a lot of it and he is as easy as they come. He would excel as a trail horse, ranch horse or even an english horse! (Reata is going to make me jump him before the sale)

We lovingly call him “Carlos... Man of love” because you can't help but love this guy. His big welcoming eyes give you a hug when you look at him... his attitude when you catch him in the mornings is just like he's been waiting for you all night. He is really a HAPPY gelding that loves his people and loves his job. If we could make 100 horses just like him, we would be in heaven. Carlos is so much fun to ride outside and in the arena alike. His powerful build makes him like a freight train when navigating some of these rough hills out here, and his ears forward mentality make you enjoy your job that much more. From the time he was a 2 year old, we could send our kids out to catch him and never worry about them. He's not just a pretty face though... He runs to cattle hard outside, outstanding to brand on and doesn't ever get hot. This is a hard one for us to let go of, but we know that whoever ends up with him will get an amazing horse that they will love.

Lopez is a fun little Gypsy Vanner cross gelding that is happy to dig in the trenches or go for a Sunday stroll. He is not too big, making him really great to go to work on and easy for anyone to crawl up onto. He is very alive and ready to go, making him a great prospect for someone that wants a gentle one but not one that they have to pedal everywhere they go. He has been branded on a bunch and also tracked a lot of cattle. His big stride is a dream to ride, and his solid structure ensures that you will have a solid horse for years to come!

2018 NORWEGIAN FJORD X THOROUGHBRED MARE
CONSIGNED BY OW RANCH

“Cinnabon” is what you would call a horse of a different color and a crazy cross that most people wouldn’t dream up! This flashy mare is a Norwegian Fjord - Thoroughbred cross! She is beautifully put together, really smooth to ride and gentle as can be! She was started in our annual Buck Brannaman Colt Starting clinic this past June; and she sailed through without a mistake. Ridden by Jeremy Schwartz, this little mare went right to having a job and has been a perfect project for Jeremy to do all the ranch duties on. She is the perfect age and disposition for someone to take further in her education and have an exceptionally gentle well started filly. She is built to last, and will make someone a great trail horse or even a ranch horse. This little mare has kid horse written all over her future!

Scampi is a really nice quiet 3 year old that has a solid foundation to take any direction you choose! He was branded on all Spring, moved cows, rides off by himself without trouble, handles tarps and flags and anything you throw at him with ridiculous ease. His quiet demeanor makes him a prime candidate for a kids horse someday if someone takes him that direction. This little horse has been roped on a lot and as a 3 year old already shows great potential as a heel horse. His color and conformation make him an ideal prospect for the arena.

“Henry Thomas” is a true gentleman and always ready for his job, whatever it may be. From a lot of good foundation Haythorn Ranch breeding, he is bred to be a tried and true ranch horse. He is a really nice comfortable ride and easy on the hips. He has worked a lot of high pressure situations such as loading alleys and pushing cattle onto trucks and he never bobbles. He branded thousands of calves this summer and really just was happy to do his job. His smooth lope is just dreamy, you can sit his trot all day long. He would make a great trail horse, ranch horse, polo horse or even a western dressage horse. Truly an all around package.

Serratelli is a Rubicano Palomino mare that is a grand daughter of CATS MERADA. She is lighting fast and really great to rope on outside and in the arena. I've put a lot of hard miles on this mare and she has never taken a lame step along the way. I've done everything on this mare from showing in 4-H to riding and roping on the ranch to packing her in the mountains. She is a true all around that you can do anything on, and eventually she will raise you some beautiful colts.

Ocho is one handsome, in your pocket, go-getter pal!! Despite his size his movements are incredibly elegant and comfortable, in and out of the arena. He actually loves arena work and would be quite talented for western dressage. His strong work ethic has been such a blessing on big days and in steep, rough country. From branding baby calves to doctorin bulls and sorting cows you can count on Ocho for all aspects of ranch work.

If Rio was a human, he would be that person that always has it all together, always looks good, always is hustling and is just pretty much perfect in every way. Rio has been such an amazing horse for our family, he has a motor but is so quiet and always come back down. Paizlee has been riding him for the past 6 month and she literally does everything on him, bareback, by herself, swimming, jumping, barrels, roping... you name it. He will crawl on his belly in front of a cow and then pack the kids around with confidence. They go under his belly over his butt and everywhere that they shouldn't on most horses... but Rio we trust. He IS NOT A DEAD HEAD! he has a motor, but always where you want him to go! Rio is an own son of PLAYGUN and definitely shows his performance horse abilities. Come check him out!

“Pickles” is as good of an all around gelding as you will find! He always seems to carry himself super collected and underneath himself, making most any maneuver super easy. He is great to rope on outside and in the arena, he was branded on a lot this spring and he always does it with class. He is the kind you can put a green rider on and they will get along fine with him, but also has some get up and go when asked! His smooth collected lope is really nice to ride and makes him really a joy to ride. He has a ton of cow sense making all sorts of cattle work really fun and easy. Having Pickles on the crew makes all our jobs easier.

He has been steady and true to inexperienced riders and put them where they needed to be. He is a big, cadillac kind of ride.

We love this little guy so much that we constantly argue about who gets the credit for picking him out... He is SOOO much fun to ride, he is so athletic and so kind, he really is the WHOLE PACKAGE! He builds to cattle hard outside and comes right back down to being quiet. He will work a cow down the fence and swallow his tail he turns so hard. His lope is very elevated in the front end making him super fun to do any lead changes on. He would make an exceptional kid horse in a few years, but right now, he would make a great trail horse, arena prospect, heel horse, breakaway horse or even cowboy dressage horse. he is really as nice of a prospect as you
